RESOURCE GUIDE PICK-UP CELEBRATION

November 4th || 9:30 am - 2:30 pm

Home of New Vision Main Office
3115 Professional Drive
Ann Arbor, MI 48104

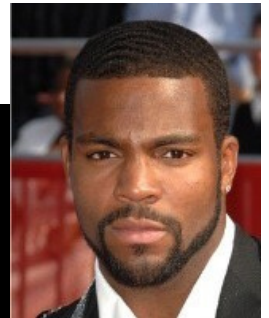

Home of New Vision, with the help of the broader community, has created a substance use disorder resource guide specifically for Washtenaw County. Join us to get free copies of the guide Friday, November 4th. To help us celebrate this accomplishment, Braylon Edwards who played for the University of Michigan and Cleveland Browns will join us to talk about the work he is doing with The Sports Marketing Agency to reduce stigma around mental health and substance use disorder. Braylon will be available from 10 - 11:30am for pictures. We will also be providing cider and doughnuts and the opportunity to connect with Home of New Vision staff about our community programs.

Using Sports and Entertainment as the vehicle, SMA has taken the social responsibility to reduce the stigma surrounding mental illness and substance use disorder. SMA TV & the Digital Network SMA raises awareness about mental illness and substance use disorders by creating unique and proprietary media content on its website in the form of videos, which are made available over a digital network that provides information and reduces stigma. To learn more about SMA, visit thesportsma.com.

Braylon Edwards is a former football wide receiver in the NFL. He played college football for the University of Michigan where he was recognized as the top college wide receiver. He was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in 2005 as the third overall pick and went on to play for the New York Jets, San Francisco 49ers, and Seattle Seahawks.
